

“A WINNING SCORE”

BROWN MACKIE COLLEGE STUDENT RECEIVES HIGHEST EVALUATION AMONG PEERS

There is nothing like the rewarding feeling a person experiences after being positively recognized amongst peers. Current Brown Mackie College - Salina student Cathy Zecha received the honor of earning the highest score on evaluation tests from her peers at the American Red Cross Association. Zecha was also the first Brown Mackie College - Salina student having been included in the evaluations.

Zecha, who is currently enrolled in the Accounting program at Brown Mackie College - Salina, fulfills her work-study hours with her local branch of the American Red Cross Association and finds great pleasure in doing so. “I blend right in as a regular employee instead of being viewed as simply a work-study student,” states Zecha. During her time with the American Red Cross Association, Zecha proved that she was always willing to perform above and beyond expectations. “I help teach first aid as well as CPR. If there is a fire or emergency situation, I volunteer to get the necessary paperwork done in case victims need a place to stay,” explains Zecha.

She gives credit to Brown Mackie College - Salina for her outstanding performance with the Red Cross. “Going to Brown Mackie College - Salina and speaking in front of my classes has helped me become a better volunteer with the Red Cross,” Zecha says. She acknowledges her favorite class thus far as being business communication. “We got to build our own mock businesses and we were able to see what it took to run a business. It was the most interesting and the most fun,” states Zecha.

In the future, Zecha would like to own her own business as well as have the opportunity to travel around the world. Zecha constantly strives towards excellence in all she does. Her hard work has earned her perfect attendance as well as recognition on the Dean’s Honor Roll list. She advises other Brown Mackie College - Salina students to persevere always through challenging times.
