September 13, 2007

We are pleased to announce a new addition to the educational community for prospective students in the Tucson area.

Brown Mackie College – Tucson has joined the Brown Mackie College system of schools located across the United States, dedicated to providing educational programs that prepare students for entry-level positions in a competitive, rapidly-changing workplace.

Initially, Brown Mackie College – Tucson will offer bachelor degree programs in Accounting, Business Administration, Criminal Justice, and Computer Science; associate's degree programs in Accounting, Business Administration, Criminal Justice, Computer Networking & Security, Health Information Technology, Medical Assistant, and Office Administration; a post bachelor certificate in Accounting; and certificate programs in Accounting/Bookkeeping, General Business, General Studies, and Software Applications.

Brown Mackie College – Tucson is committed to making an important contribution to the personal and professional development of its students, as well as to the economic growth of the region that it serves by providing higher education opportunities that successfully prepare skilled graduates for their chosen professions.

After you've had a chance to review the enclosed media kit, I would like to extend a personal invitation for you to meet Holly Helscher, president of Brown Mackie College – Tucson. Ms. Helscher is available to the media to discuss the importance of the community to Brown Mackie College – Tucson; its strengths, mission, people and programs; and plans for future growth and development. She also can provide you with information on enrollment trends, featured faculty, how to apply and much more.

We will contact you over the next several weeks to arrange an interview opportunity. In the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact me at (412) 995-7262, jpmuller@edmc.edu; or Stephanie Grisham of Mindspace Public Relations at (480) 941-8497, sgrisham@mindspace.net if you have any questions, or want to set up a discussion in advance.

Thank you for the opportunity to deliver communication on this new educational endeavor to the community it will serve.

Sincerely,

Jacquelyn P. Muller
Vice President – Public Relations
